ENTERTAINMENT WITH
PAT SAVAGE
AND JON GLAZER

Tuesday, October 29th 6:45 pm
Burnstein Auditorium

Native Tulsans both, Pat Savage (guitar, vocals) and Jon Glazer (keyboards, vocals) have been friends and musical collaborators since their teenage years. From "garage" and more grown-up bands to creating and recording the music for some of Tulsa's most-recognized commercial music and themes (Woodland Hills Mall's beloved Christmas ads, and more), they've always combined irreverent fun with the serious business of producing good sounds.

PAT SAVAGE

Pat is recognized in the Tulsa music community as one of the finest, most versatile musicians on any instrument. After attending the University of Tulsa, he played in several successful local bands, while building an impressive resume as a composer/producer for the city's busiest production house. All of that while raising two children with his wife, singer and medical pro, Lori Duke. In recent years, Pat has become an accomplished songwriter; his songs have been recorded by artists such as Trisha Yearwood and the Grammy-nominated Ashley McBryde. Although those pursuits necessitate frequent trips to Nashville, Pat and Lori reside here in Tulsa.

JON GLAZER

Jon has enjoyed spending the last seventeen years entertaining audiences in some of Tulsa's most exciting nightclubs, and, of course – at Zarrow Pointe! After studying at the University of North Texas, Jon established himself in both nightclubs and recording studios in Dallas. His career then took him to Los Angeles, where he recorded with Rick Springfield, and Nashville, home base during his years of touring and television appearances with Naomi and Wynonna Judd. Those appearances allowed Jon to share the stage with such luminaries as Bette Midler, Paul Shaffer and Carl Perkins, amongst others. Jon and his wife, Starla, live in Tulsa... not that far from Lori and Pat.
