

ZARROW POINTE

News

January 2024

Views

Entering a new year brings a blend of nostalgia and anticipation. Reflecting on cherished memories while embracing fresh possibilities. Shared activities foster a sense of community, creating a supportive environment. Whether it's engaging in group events or enjoying quiet moments, the start of the year becomes an opportunity for renewed friendships and the pursuit of fulfilling experiences.

At Zarrow Pointe, our mission is to provide vibrant and inclusive living, learning and care throughout the progression of life. We strive to live out that mission every day and make this the best place to live and to work.

Guest Speaker: David Goldenberg

Tuesday, January 9th
3:30 p.m.
Burnstein Auditorium

David Goldenberg will be here to speak about the 1953 case against the Rosenbergs in the aftermath of World War II. The young Jewish American couple was convicted and executed for espionage against the U.S. This case has led to years of controversy - were they really guilty? For some, that has been in dispute for seventy years.

A documentary by the Rosenberg's granddaughter will be shown on January 4th in the Burnstein Auditorium at 2:00 p.m.

David Goldenberg's talk at Zarrow Pointe comes from his newest book, "Trials That Shaped America" which will be for sale at the event for $25.

Scott Musik Trio

Thursday, January 11th
3:30 p.m.
Burnstein Auditorium

The talented trio is back to entertain us with Doug on the mandolin, Randy on the bass guitar, and Scott on the guitar and lead vocals.

The Piatigorsky Foundation

Sunday, January 14th
2:30 p.m.
Burnstein Auditorium

A special Sunday afternoon performance with pianist Nicholas Shaneyfelt and tenor Kelly W. Burns.

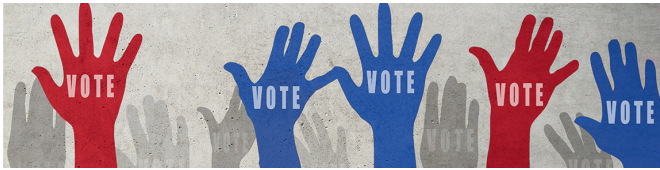

Dr. Shaneyfelt is co-director of the International Music Festival of the Adriatic in Duino, Italy. He recently performed in Berlin, Germany and Poznan', Poland.

Kelly W. Burns is an active performer of opera, musical theater and concert works. His repertoire includes songs and chamber works in numerous languages.

Jon Glazer & Pat Savage

Tuesday, January 23rd
3:30 p.m.
Burnstein Auditorium

Come enjoy live music with local favorites Jon Glazer and Pat Savage. These two never fail to entertain with their upbeat music.

Voter Registration and Absentee Ballot Application

Friday, January 5th
3:00 to 4:00 p.m.
Activities Office

If you moved to Zarrow Pointe over the past year and haven't changed your voter registration, you will need to do so before the upcoming elections, there are several this year. Also, if you would like to vote by absentee ballot you must renew your application at the beginning of each new year. (Anyone may vote by absentee ballot. We have a notary on staff for your convenience.) Call Julie in the Activities Department to make an appointment.

introduction to calligraphy

Fun Intro to Calligraphy

Wednesday, January 10th
2:00 p.m.
Art Studio

Led by one of ZP's newest residents, June Nessler, this will be a fun, easy class for beginners. This group will meet weekly in the Art Studio and is by reservation only. Contact the Activities Department for information. Supplies will be provided.

Walker and Wheelchair Clinic

Tuesday, January 16th
1:00 to 2:00 p.m.
Burnstein Auditorium

The maintenance department will be available in the auditorium from 1:00 to 2:00 to work on your walker or wheelchair. No appointment necessary.

Memory Lane

Tuesday, January 16th & 30th
2:00 p.m.
Theater Room

Walk down memory lane together. A theme will be chosen and each person will be given a set amount of time to share a happy memory with the group.

Bunco

Thursday, January 18th
2:00 p.m.
Burnstein Auditorium

This easy-to-learn game is played with dice in groups of four people. Participants roll dice, aiming to match a target number for points. Players switch tables after each round, fostering social interaction. It's lighthearted and luck-driven creating a festive atmosphere with its simple rules and friendly competition. And there will be prizes! Contact the Activities Department to sign up.

Poetry Reading

Thursday, January 25th
2:00 p.m.
Theater Room

This is a casual group. No pressure, just friends immersed in verse. If you enjoy reading, reciting or listening to poetry this is for you. Some ZP residents even write and share their own poetry.