

It's time once again to participate in the back-to-school supply drive for Marshall and McClure Elementary Schools. There is a special fund set up in the Zarrow Pointe business office if you would like to make a monetary donation. Make checks payable to Zarrow Pointe with a note in the memo section "school supply fund". Also, a donation box will be located at Town Center beginning August 1st for new notebooks, pencils, paper and any other general supplies you would like to donate.

Zarrow Pointe has joined with the Jewish Federation in recent years to support these two schools and the students and staff have been very appreciative. They even came out to entertain residents with their holiday choir program. This is a great way to help your local community and make a difference in students' lives.

The Great Courses

The Tulsa Accordion Band

Tuesday, August 13th
6:30 p.m.
Burnstein Auditorium

Irene Bookbinder and the Tulsa Accordion Band will return in August to entertain residents with lively music and some crazy antics. They were a big hit when they played at Zarrow previously. Come have some fun and join them for the "chicken dance."

Live Music: Pete 'N' Keely

Tuesday,
August 27th
6:30 p.m.
Burnstein
Auditorium

Pete 'n' Keely stars Heather Richetto-Rumley and Mike Pryor. The two have performed in a variety of area productions - she in Bat Boy, Tony 'n Tina's Wedding, and Big Blondes, he in Forever Plaid, How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying and Cotton Patch Gospel; and together in Little Shop of Horrors.

The Tulsa World called Pete 'n' Keely a "thoroughly amusing and engaging show...the performers are better than good and sing like they love it...the applause at the end of the night says it all."

Guest Speaker:
Barry Friedman
Jack Sh*t 2: Wait for the Movie, It's in Color

Tuesday, August 20th
3:30 p.m.
Burnstein Auditorium

The second installment in the life of Barry's father, Jack Friedman. "Pushing 90"—that's how he described the last half of his 80s. Still in good health, he moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma, albeit kicking and screaming.

"He dragged me here!" he'd say, pointing to me, to those who'd ask and those who didn't.

He wasn't completely wrong.

Before, three, four times per year I'd fly to Vegas to help him find the lost icons on his desktop, change the oil in a car he should no longer be permitted to drive, organize his seven antihypertensive medicines into plastic dispensers, and occasionally find long forgotten liquified potatoes. For all his ebullience and energy, my father was, in fact, pushing 90, and men that age have strokes and get lonely and forgetful and yell at those who, according to him, moved the roads.

He needed to be closer to me. He needed someone to drive him to Panera.

When the time came, I thought, better for him to die across town than in a nursing home in Vegas.

His dementia when he arrived in Tulsa just visited occasionally. It was parenthetical, enlightening, and often marked by brilliant non-sequiturs. In time, that would change. But during these early years in Tulsa, Jack Friedman was still very much Jack Friedman.

Guest Speaker:
Lori Fullbright
"Cons, Frauds & Scams"

Thursday, August 22nd
1:00 p.m.
Burnstein Auditorium

Lori Fullbright anchors the 5, 6 and 10 o'clock news each night on Oklahoma's Own Channel 6 with Craig Day. She has been the station's crime reporter for 32 years. She has covered countless crime scenes and interviewed thousands of crime victims as well as hundreds of criminals and law enforcement officers. She speaks to groups all over the state about crime safety and how to avoid the current cons, frauds and scams.

Lori won the 2015 Oklahoma Association of Broadcasters Award for best investigative reporting for her story on a wedding ring destroyed by the medical examiner's office and the 2014 OAB award for best news feature for her story on how easy it is for someone to steal purses out of shopping carts.

In 2020, Lori was inducted into the Oklahoma Journalism Hall of Fame. In 2021, she received an Edward R Murrow award for excellence in journalism for her 30-minute documentary on missing Oklahomans called Missing: Not Forgotten.
